

OPEN INVITATION

THE FINNISH SOCIETY FOR INTERNATIONAL HEALTH

IS DELIGHTED TO INVITE YOU
TO AN ONLINE LECTURE ON GLOBAL FOOD SECURITY!

Date and time: 3.11.2020 at 18-19.30 (EET, UTC+2).

Zoom: <https://utu.zoom.us/j/67709820603>

Speakers for the evening are Heli Kuusipalo and Liisa Korkalo.

Heli Kuusipalo is a senior researcher at Finnish Institute for Health and Welfare. She will be talking about her work for United Nation's World Food Programme (WFP), where she's worked in developing food products aimed at treating malnutrition.

WFP is this year's Nobel Peace Prize recipient, and we are happy to have this opportunity to hear about the work the organisation is doing in improving food security and nutrition.

Liisa Korkalo is a senior researcher at University of Helsinki and she will be talking about her PhD topic, micronutrient deficiencies in adolescent Mozambican girls.
